We had only 2 Saturdays with our entrepreneurs in October but they were super fun and productive!

We had 3 field trips – in Bangalore, our students visited Cloudnine, India's leading chain of maternity hospitals where Rohit MA hosted them, in Hyderabad, Dia Bhupal organized a field trip at Taj Krishna where the kids met head security, head chef and head operations and in Delhi, Mr Deep Kalra spoke to our kids at his MakeMyTrip office in Gurgaon. Field trips are so fun and experiential and open our kids eyes to a world of possibilities!

We had 3 incredible speakers as well – in Hyderabad, Anu Acharya from Mapmygenome, a novel and path breaking venture and in Mumbai we had 2 speakers from the world of philanthropy, Nawneet Ranjan and Deval Sanghavi.

Nawneet Ranjan from Dharavi Diary introduced us to 4 girl students who spoke to our kids about how coding helped them solve their community problems at Dharavi. Deval Sanghavi from Dasra and his super energetic team had a panel discussion on social entrepreneurship and strategic philanthropy.

We also organized a unique, first of its kind YEA-Dasra site visit at NGO Magic Bus.

October is the month of Diwali – – the season of sharing and giving and we are happy that we had the opportunity to organize these experiences that teach our budding entrepreneurs the value and importance of social responsibility and philanthropy!
